

Application for approval of registrar program in an approved area of practice Profession: Psychology

The Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (the National Law)

This form is for psychologists with general registration applying for approval of a registrar program for the purpose of gaining endorsement in an approved area of practice. The registrar program may only begin once the Psychology Board of Australia (the Board) has granted approval.

This form should be signed by both the registrar and the principal supervisor. Academic transcripts required must be submitted directly to the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) by the issuing institution. Copies will not be accepted.

It is important that you refer to the Board's Guidelines on area of practice endorsements to determine whether you meet the eligibility criteria. Registration standards, codes and guidelines can be found at www.psychologyboard.gov.au

 This application will not be considered unless it is complete and all supporting documentation has been provided. Supporting documentation must be certified in accordance with the AHPRA guidelines. For more information, see Certifying documents in the Information and definitions section of this form.

Privacy and confidentiality

The Board and AHPRA are committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The ways the Board and AHPRA may collect, use and disclose your information are set out in the collection statement relevant to this application, available at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

By signing this form, you confirm that you have read the collection statement. AHPRA's privacy policy explains how you may access and seek correction of your personal information held by AHPRA and the Board, how to complain to AHPRA about a breach of your privacy and how your complaint will be dealt with. This policy can be accessed at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

To be eligible for a reduction in the registrar program under this provision the academic transcript provided to the Board at question 8 must show that you were enrolled at 30 June 2010.

Proposed supervision period

months

SECTION F: Supervision agreement

It is agreed that:

- The supervision will begin within 28 days of the date the registrar program is approved by the Board.
- The supervisor will make the registrar aware of the ethical codes and standards of practice required by the Board.
- The supervisor and registrar will set six-monthly objectives and regularly review these as a part of the supervision.
- The registrar will submit to the Board a progress report completed by the supervisor every six months (Progress report for the registrar program – PREA-76).
- The supervisor will assess whether the registrar’s core capabilities are at a level of depth and expertise appropriate to the approved area of practice endorsement.
- Supervision will occur at least fortnightly.
- Supervision will be on an individual (one-on-one) basis.
- Supervision will be provided at a minimum rate of 40 hours per full-time equivalent year of psychological practice.
- A professional development program will be developed that meets the registrar’s practice requirements and the Board’s Continuing professional development (CPD) registration standard and the Guidelines on area of practice endorsements.
- Any workshops completed as part of the continuing professional development program will be directly relevant to the registrar’s area of practice.
- The supervisor and registrar have determined the method of conflict resolution to be used in the event of a grievance arising in the supervision process.
- The registrar will submit an application for approval to the Board within 21 days if there is a change in supervision (Application to change supervisor for a psychology registrar program – ACSP-76) or practice arrangements (Application to change practice site for a psychology registrar program – ACAP-76).
- The registrar will submit to the Board a final supervision report completed by the supervisor on completion of the requirements of the registrar program (Progress report for registrar program for endorsement in an approved area of practice – PREA-76) or when there is a change in supervisor (Application to change supervisor for a psychology registrar program – ACSP-76).
- If progress reports are not submitted within 21 days of falling due, the Board may not recognise the period of supervised practice for the registrar program..
- If any practice or supervision hours do not meet minimum requirements, the Board may require the registrar program to be extended.

SECTION G: Obligations and consent

Before you sign and date this form, make sure that you have answered all of the relevant questions correctly and read the statements below. An incomplete form may delay processing and you may be asked to complete a new form. For more information, see the Information and definitions section of this form.

Obligations of registered health practitioners

The National Law pt 7 div 11 sub-div 3 establishes the legislative obligations of registered health practitioners. A contravention of these obligations, as detailed at points 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 or 8 below does not constitute an offence but may constitute behaviour for which health, conduct or performance action may be taken by the Board. Registered health practitioners are also obligated to meet the requirements of their Board as established in registration standards, codes and guidelines.

Continuing professional development

1. A registered health practitioner must undertake the continuing professional development required by an approved registration standard for the health profession in which the practitioner is registered.

Professional indemnity insurance arrangements

2. A registered health practitioner must not practise the health profession in which the practitioner is registered unless appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements are in force in relation to the practitioner's practice of the profession.
3. A National Board may, at any time by written notice, require a registered health practitioner registered by the Board to give the Board evidence of the appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements that are in force in relation to the practitioner's practice of the profession.
4. A registered health practitioner must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a written notice given to the practitioner under point 3 above.

Notice of certain events

5. A registered health practitioner must, within 7 days after becoming aware that a relevant event has occurred in relation to the practitioner, give the National Board that registered the practitioner written notice of the event. Relevant event means—
  - a) the practitioner is charged, whether in a participating jurisdiction or elsewhere, with an offence punishable by 12 months imprisonment or more; or
  - b) the practitioner is convicted of or the subject of a finding of guilt for an offence, whether in a participating jurisdiction or elsewhere, punishable by imprisonment; or
  - c) appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements are no longer in place in relation to the practitioner's practice of the profession; or
  - d) the practitioner's right to practise at a hospital or another facility at which health services are provided is withdrawn or restricted because of the practitioner's conduct, professional performance or health; or
  - e) the practitioner's billing privileges are withdrawn or restricted under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth) because of the practitioner's conduct, professional performance or health; or
  - f) the practitioner's authority under a law of a State or Territory to administer, obtain, possess, prescribe, sell, supply or use a scheduled medicine or class of scheduled medicines is cancelled or restricted; or
  - g) a complaint is made about the practitioner to the following entities—
    - (i) the chief executive officer under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth);
    - (ii) an entity performing functions under the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Cth);
    - (iii) the Secretary within the meaning of the National Health Act 1953 (Cth);
    - (iv) the Secretary to the Department in which the Migration Act 1958 (Cth) is administered;
    - (v) another Commonwealth, State or Territory entity having functions relating to professional services provided by health practitioners or the regulation of health practitioners.
  - h) the practitioner's registration under the law of another country that provides for the registration of health practitioners is suspended or cancelled or made subject to a condition or another restriction.

Change in principal place of practice, address or name

6. A registered health practitioner must, within 30 days of any of the following changes happening, give the National Board that registered the practitioner written notice of the change and any evidence providing proof of the change required by the Board—
  - a) a change in the practitioner's principal place of practice;
  - b) a change in the address provided by the registered health practitioner as the address the Board should use in corresponding with the practitioner;
  - c) a change in the practitioner's name.

Employer's details

7. A National Board may, at any time by written notice given to a health practitioner registered by the Board, ask the practitioner to give the Board the following information—
  - a) information about whether the practitioner is employed by another entity;
  - b) if the practitioner is employed by another entity—
    - (i) the name of the practitioner's employer; and
    - (ii) the address and other contact details of the practitioner's employer.
8. The registered health practitioner must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the notice.

Consent

I consent to the Board and AHPRA making enquiries of, and exchanging information with, the authorities of any Australian state or territory, or other country, regarding my practice as a health practitioner or otherwise regarding matters relevant to this application. I authorise the Board to obtain my criminal history in Australia and overseas.

I understand that:

- a complete criminal history, including resolved and unresolved charges, spent convictions, and findings of guilt for which no conviction was recorded, will be released to the Board, and
- information will be extracted from this form and used for the purpose of criminal history checking. This information may be used by Australian police services for law enforcement purposes including the investigation of any outstanding criminal offences.

I acknowledge that:

- the Board may validate documents provided in support of this application as evidence of my identity, and
- failure to complete all relevant sections of this application and to enclose all supporting documentation may result in this application not being accepted.

I undertake to comply with all relevant legislation and Board registration standards, codes and guidelines.

I confirm that I have read the privacy and confidentiality statement for this form.

I declare that:

- the above statements, and the documents provided in support of this application, are true and correct, and
- I am the person named in the attached documents.

I make this declaration in the knowledge that a false statement is grounds for the Board to refuse registration.

I am aware that personal information that I provide may be given to a third party for regulatory purposes, consistent with the National Law.

Information and definitions

CERTIFYING DOCUMENTS

DO NOT send original documents unless specified.

Copies of documents provided in support of an application, or other purpose required by the National Law, must be certified as true copies of the original documents. Each and every certified document must:

- be in English. If original documents are not in English, you must provide a certified copy of the original document and translation in accordance with AHPRA guidelines, which are available at www.ahpra.gov.au/registration/registration-process
- be initialled on every page by the authorised officer. For a list of people authorised to certify documents, visit www.ahpra.gov.au/certify
- be annotated on the last page as appropriate e.g. 'I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original' and signed by the authorised officer, and
- list the name, date of certification, and contact phone number, and position number (if relevant) and have the stamp or seal of the authorised officer (if relevant) applied.

Certified copies will only be accepted in hard copy by mail or in person (not by fax, email, etc). Photocopies of previously certified documents will not be accepted. For more information, AHPRA's guidelines for certifying documents can be found online at www.ahpra.gov.au/certify

CHANGE OF NAME

You must provide evidence of a change of name if you have ever been formally known by another name(s) or any of the documentation you are providing in support of your application is in another name(s).

Evidence must be a certified copy of one of the following documents:

- Standard marriage certificate (ceremonial certificates will not be accepted)
- Deed poll.
- Change of name certificate.

Faxed, scanned or emailed copies of certified documents will not be accepted.

PRACTICE

Practice means any role, whether remunerated or not, in which you use your skills and knowledge as a health practitioner in your profession. Practice is not restricted to the provision of direct clinical care. It also includes using professional knowledge in a direct non-clinical relationship with clients, working in management, administration, education, research, advisory, regulatory or policy development roles, and any other roles that impact on safe, effective delivery of services in the profession.
