CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD)

You are required to participate regularly in continuing professional development (CPD) that is relevant to your scope of practice.

Registered psychologists have a responsibility to ensure that they continue to maintain, enhance and extend their knowledge and skills throughout their working lives. Consumers also have an expectation that registered psychologists providing professional services do so in a competent and contemporary manner.

A registered psychologist who has been registered for less than 12 months at the time of application for renewal of registration or endorsement, must have accumulated the minimum number of CPD hours for every month of registration. For example, 30 hours per year equates to 2.5 hours per month.

CRIMINAL HISTORY

Criminal history includes the following, whether in Australia or overseas, at any time:

- every plea of guilty or finding of guilt by a court of the person for an offence, whether or not a conviction is recorded for the offence, and

Under the National Law, spent convictions legislation does not apply to criminal history disclosure requirements. Therefore, you must disclose your complete criminal history as detailed above, irrespective of the time that has lapsed since the charge was laid or the finding of guilt was made.

The Board will decide whether a health practitioner's criminal history is relevant to the practice of the profession.

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE (PII)

You must have PII, or some alternative form of indemnity cover that complies with the Board's registration standard, for all aspects of your practice, in all locations in Australia. Initial registration and annual renewal of registration requires a declaration that you will be covered for all aspects of practice for the whole period of the registration. You may be covered by your Australian employer's PII—you will need to confirm this with your employer.
