Section 6: Privacy statement

The Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) is collecting your personal information to:

- process your application;
- assess your suitability for appointment to a state/territory/regional board under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law, as in force in each state and territory (the National Law); and
- manage your membership of a state/territory/regional board if you are appointed (e.g. by publishing your name on the board website and in AHPRA publications regarding the board's activities).

If you do not provide the required information, it may not be possible to process your application. Board appointments are made by the Minister of Health.

AHPRA may disclose your personal information:

- to government departmental staff, and other persons engaged by AHPRA for the purpose of processing and assessing your application;
- to other people (such as government agencies and health authorities) for information relevant to your application, such as identification, work history and immigration status;
- to organisations that issued your qualifications in order to establish their accuracy (and these organisations may be overseas); and
- where this is required or permitted by law (e.g. where AHPRA has to publicly report on Board activities).

Your personal details may also be included in a pool of persons who are interested in appointment to a state/territory/regional board. If a vacancy arises, you may then be contacted to determine if you are interested in applying.

AHPRA is committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). AHPRA's privacy policy explains how you may: access and seek correction of your personal information held by AHPRA; how to complain to AHPRA about a breach of your privacy; and how your complaint will be dealt with. The policy can be accessed at: <http://www.ahpra.gov.au/About-AHPRA/Privacy.aspx>

When you provide us with information about other individuals, we rely on you to make them aware that such information will or may be provided to us as part of the application process.

Consent and Declaration

I consent to the use of personal information in this form (including any sensitive information such as gender or ethnic origin) by AHPRA and the relevant National Board(s) as part of administering this recruitment and appointment process.

I declare that:

- I have never been, nor am I currently insolvent; and
- I have not been disqualified from acting as a director or acting in the management of a company.

I grant permission for sharing personal information and for inquiries to be made to establish the accuracy of any of the information provided by me in this form and accompanying attachments and to determine my eligibility and suitability for appointment.

I understand that these inquiries will involve the disclosure of my information for these limited purposes. I understand that the AHPRA and other authorised persons may make these inquiries of any persons or organisations they consider appropriate to support the process for filling the vacancies.

By signing this declaration, I acknowledge that, I grant permission for the conduct of probity checks, which will consist of:

- an Australia-wide criminal record check by CrimTrac
- a check of the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) register of persons prohibited/disqualified by ASIC under the provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)
- a check of the Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA) National Personal Insolvency Index which contains information about proceedings and administrations under the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth).
