

All pathways to general registration

*The last day to apply for the internship is 30 June 2022. See our website for further details.

Note: After obtaining general registration, those completing the higher degree pathway may complete a registrar program leading to area of practice endorsement. Those completing an internship pathway can later complete a bridging qualification and registrar program leading to endorsement. See our website for further details.